

Please keep these special interests from killing free enterprise and freedom of choice. Here is another attempt by special interest groups to have the government "subsidized" their businesses by limiting consumer choice to the low end service they offer.

This is the land of free enterprise, let competition determine who shall make it in the market. We are not in U.S.S.R. for God sake, even Russia is for free market.